

Following my intuition keeps me on the right track

Following my intuition keeps me on the right track.

I trust my instinct, judgment, and intuition. Intuition is my own special form of wisdom.

It allows me to know without reason.

When I am overwhelmed with facts or lack time, my intuition is a welcome companion.

Trusting my intuition empowers me, strengthens me, and makes me happier.

I allow my inner voice to guide me. My best outcomes are the result of following my intuition.

I am open to the suggestions my intuition provides. I have confidence and faith that my intuition will steer me in the right direction. Following my intuition keeps me on the right track.

My intuition allows me to make decisions quickly. I save time when I give my intuition a voice.

My intuition is a powerful tool in my life. I utilize it daily to streamline my life.

I struggle when I ignore my intuition. My intuition is the result of my experience and current knowledge. It is infinitely wise. I am failing to use all my resources and inner powers when I fail to listen to my intuition.

Today, I am giving my intuition my full attention. I am finding that quiet space that brings my intuition forward. I am following my intuition because it keeps me on the right track.

Self-Reflection Questions:

1. When have I failed to listen to my intuition? What was the result?
2. When have I listened to my intuition? What was the result?
3. If I follow my intuition more often, what would be the likely result?
